PRESS RELEASE

The Adhyaksh, Zilla Parishad, South Andaman, Shri Subir Chander met the Secretary (PWD) on 8th November 2019 along with the villagers of Guptapara, Wandoor and Chouldhari that included Shri Nripendra Nath Nag, Ex-Zilla Parishad Member, Shri Nakul Chandra Adhikary (Social Worker) and Shri Sanjay Saha (Social Worker) to deliberate upon various burning issues of the area. Main focus was addressed towards resolving the issues pertaining to Pradhan Mantri Gramin Sadak Yojna (PMGSY) of Collinpur pending with the PWD and Water Supply problem of Tushnabad village besides undue delay in the tender process for construction of new classrooms for Navodaya Vidyalaya at Chouldhari.

Regarding Navodaya Vidyalaya it was emphasized that the tender had yet to be floated for the deposit work by the PWD despite a lapse of 02 years which has had its effect upon the strength of the school for want of classrooms. The demand for classrooms keeps on increasing each year. Therefore, when it is not executed in time, the burden is doubled upon the school thereby causing heavy loss for the students who are denied admission to the school due to shortage of classrooms. The Panchayati Raj Institutions (PRIs) have to bear the ire of the villagers in this regard.

After a patient hearing the Secretary assured that there would be prompt action with regard to the grievances of the public of the area. On the request of the Adhyaksh to pay a visit to the area for having a first hand information about the burning issues of the people, the Secretary consented and agreed to visit the area at an earlier date.
