Press release

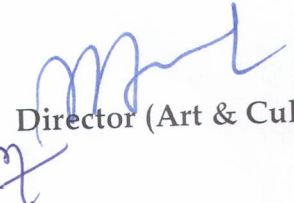

Title:- Regional organizations, Sangathans , Groups of A&N Islands to register their organizations with the Department of Art & Culture

There are several regional organizations in the islands working for the promotion of folk art and culture of their respective regions. In order to provide these associations opportunities to participate in various functions and depute them to national level functions organized by the department from time to time, the Department of Art & Culture invites these organizations to register themselves with the department by sharing their details such as name of the organization, registration number and date, contact details, postal address etc. by 7th August 2023. More information in this regard may be obtained over phone no 03192-231399.
