

Press Notice

Some tenants of the Municipal Shops have transferred / sold the shops allotted to them without the knowledge of the Council. The persons who have purchased the shops have also not informed the Council. This practice is in violation of the condition mentioned in the allotment order which reads “ the tenant shall not sublet or part with any portion of the shop allotted to him / her to any third party / agency without permission of the Council”.

However, the tenants / sub-tenants of the Municipal Shops have approached the Municipal Council for a allow transfer of tenancy rights of Municipal Shops. Accordingly, Council has formulated a policy for transfer of tenancy on payment of prescribed penalty.

Therefore, all the persons who have acquired the Municipal Shops from the tenant without the approval of the Council are hereby advised to apply for transfer of tenancy, in the prescribed application form available in the Revenue Section of the Municipal Council within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, failing which no such request shall be considered thereafter.
