MEGA JOB FAIR AT GOVT ITI DOLLYGUNJ DRAWS ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD; OVER 95 CANDIDATES OFFERED POSITIONS

Sri Vijaya Puram, November 6, 2024 – Government ITI Dollygunj launched its Mega Job Fair today, drawing a crowd of approximately 200 candidates accompanied by their parents, where they explored promising career paths in India's prominent construction company. This event, which will continue through November 14, provides a unique platform for job-seekers to meet prospective employers and gain insights into industry expectations.

The fair began with an inaugural lamp-lighting ceremony led by the Chief Guest, Shri Srinivasa Rao, Labour Commissioner & DET, Shri Dharani Natrajan L&T-CSTI, Representative, Shri Venketesh.Ch. Principal / Deputy Apprenticeship Advisor to symbolize hope and new beginnings.

Following the ceremony, Shri Venketesh. Ch, Principal ITI / Deputy Apprenticeship Advisor, delivered a motivational welcome address. In his speech, Shri Venketesh highlighted Govt. ITI's commitment to providing quality training and career opportunities to the Islands youth, emphasizing that, this fair embodies the institute's mission to equip our youths with skills, that meet industry demands. He encouraged the candidates to make the most of this opportunity, reiterating that, their hard work and dedication are vital in achieving a successful career. His address inspired the candidates to continue pursuing learning and excellence in their trades.

Adding to the occasion, Shri Dharani Natrajan representative L&T CSTI, Kanchipuram, who has partnered with Government ITI Dollygunj for over a decade, shared his reflections on the institution's role in shaping a skilled workforce. His speech underscored the value of hands-on training, industry alignment, and commitment to professional growth.

The Chief Guest, Shri Srinivasa Rao, commended the collaboration between Govt. ITI Dollygunj and industry partners such as L&T. He spoke on the importance of skill development in today's economy, reminding the candidates that their skills are pivotal for the growth of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands and beyond.

A key highlight was an online address and presentation by Shri M. Niranjan Mishra, Advisor, L&T, Shri D. Baiju Dasappan, Principal L&T- CSTI and Shri Ashwat Arun Shetty from L&T-CSTI, Kanchipuram, who shared insights on the career opportunities within L&T, and further motivating candidates to pursue industry-specific expertise and skills.

Shri DN. Choudhary, Training Officer, Govt. ITI Dollygunj, offered a heartfelt vote of thanks, extending gratitude to the Chief Guest, L&T officials, Principal ITI, faculty members, and especially the candidates and their families for participation and support.

Following the inspiring addresses, a motivating selection process took place, with 95 candidates ultimately receiving their selection letters on the spot. The candidates, alongside their families, expressed excitement and pride at taking this important first step in their career journeys. This moment not only marks the beginning of a promising future but also represents a pathway to growth and learning with esteemed companies, igniting hope and ambition among the selected candidates.

The Mega Job Fair will continue until November 14, 2024. Aspiring candidates of the Islands are encouraged to visit Govt. ITI Dollygunj at 10:00 AM daily to connect with L&T-CSTI and explore new opportunities. Govt. ITI Dollygunj warmly invites all interested youth to take advantage of this chance to shape their futures in India's prominent construction company.

For additional information, candidates and their families may contact the Govt. ITI Dollygunj.
