Directorate of Tourism Announces New Timing for S&L Show Ticket Bookings

Responding to requests from tourism stakeholders and prioritizing the convenience of tourists visiting the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, the Government has announced a significant update to the ticket booking process for the Sound and Light (S&L) shows.

Effective immediately, the ticket booking window will now open daily at 9:00 AM, instead of the previous schedule of midnight every night. This adjustment aims to make the booking process more accessible and user-friendly for domestic and international tourists.

Tourists can continue to access the portal at www.andamantourism.gov.in/etourist for seamless booking of S&L show tickets.

This decision underscores the Government's commitment to enhancing the tourism experience in the Islands and addressing the concerns of stakeholders actively promoting tourism.
