PRESS RELEASE

A Skill Development Training Programme for Assistant Dress Maker (Tailoring) was inaugurated on 20.01.2026 at District Prison, Prothrapur, for the benefit of prison inmates. The programme is being conducted as part of ongoing efforts towards skill development, rehabilitation, and social reintegration through Jan Shikshan Sansthan, South Andaman.

The training programme was formally inaugurated by Shri Mohammed Iqbal, Jailor, District Prison, Prothrapur, in the presence of Ms. Maria Sheela, Director and Shri K. Vijay Kumar, Vice Chairman, Jan Shikshan Sansthan, South Andaman.

The initiative aims to equip inmates with practical vocational skills, promote self-reliance, and support their rehabilitation by creating sustainable livelihood opportunities upon their release. The Assistant Dress Maker (Tailoring) course offers hands-on training in accordance with industry-relevant standards, enabling participants to gain employable skills.

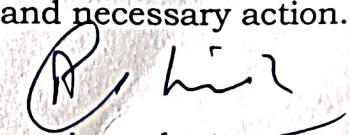

This programme reflects the commitment of Jan Shikshan Sansthan and the Prison Administration towards empowering inmates through meaningful skill development and constructive engagement.
