PRESS RELEASE

SOUTH ANDAMAN POLICE SOLVED MOLESTATION CASE & ARRESTED THE ACCUSED FROM BANGALURU

The police staff of PS Aberdeen has been successful in arresting an accused from Bangalore and recovering the phone and SIM used for committing the crime. On 08-08-2017 a case was registered at PS Aberdeen on the complaint of a lady against an unknown person harassing her since last one month through Whatsapp by sending his vulgar pictures and obscene chats.

The investigation of the case was taken up by SHO PS Aberdeen Insp. A. K. Singh, who succeeded in tracing out the whereabouts of the accused person using technical surveillance. The accused was found to be residing in North Bangalore, Karnataka and subsequently a team consisting of SI M.V. Shiju Kumar, HC/910 Vijay Shankar and PC/3015 D. Shiv Kumar was deputed to Bangaluru. The team along with the support of Bangaluru Police traced out the accused from his own house.

The accused got the number of the complainant lady from some friend and then started harassing her in the name of friendship. The lady clearly refused him and told him that she will inform the police about his indecent behavior, to which the accused was defiant and threatened her to post the chat on Facebook to defame her. However, during interrogation, the accused confessed that he mustered the courage of harassing her as he never thought that any police from Andaman will ever come to catch him.

The case was sensitive in nature as it was related to outraging the modesty of a woman, hence the entire team of PS Aberdeen headed by Insp. A.K.Singh, SHO PS Aberdeen and supervision of SDPO (SA) Shri. Nishant Gupta was working on the case day and night.
