

PRESS RELEASE

In connection with the 64th Celebration of National Wildlife Week, the Little Andaman Division has also celebrated along with the rest of the Country. The Divisional Forest Officer Little Andaman Division, Shri Satyaprakash Singh, IFS has conducted various Programmes in the entire 1st Week of October. The programme commenced with the excursion tour conducted on 01st October 2018 for the students from GPS Cylone Basti. The Excursion started with the bird watching activity at R.K.Pur and V.K.Pur where Smti. Pushpam, Forester, and Shri M.Kamal Raju, Forest Guard showed the birds present in the Forest and explained about the importance of Wildlife. Later on the same day a quiz competition was conducted for the individual Child in which George Alwin Students of Fifth class adjudged as the best Students for the entire excursion.

To sensitize the General Public about the consequences of illegal poaching and human crocodile conflict, the Staffs and workers have played a Nukkad natak. The nukkad Natak was written and Directed by Shri M.Kamal Raju, Forest Guard on the subject "Human crocodile Conflict, and Protecting Forest and wildlife". The Nukkad natak was performed at Hutbay Bazaar, V.K.Pur and R.K.Pur Bazaar area during 03.10.2018 to 05.10.2018 by gathering the local public with beats and slogans. Later a beach cleanliness drive was conducted at Ongi Tikrey Permanent Shelters and Chattan Beach at Little Andaman.

Every year the national Wildlife Week is celebrated to spread Awareness about the Wildlife. This year the theme of the National Wildlife week is the "Big Cats: "Predators under threat"
