ANIIMS Students win Gold Medal in Global Young Science Challenge 2018

Ms.Vincy Nagar and Mr.Emant Jhunjhunwala, 7th Semester students of Andaman & Nicobar Islands Institute Of Medical Sciences (ANIIMS), Port Blair under the guidance of Dr.G.Jahanvi, Professor and HOD-Community Medicine, participated in Global Young Science Challenge 2018, organized by “ Foundation for Global Science Initiatives (a GOI undertaking) at Vishakhapatnam on 8th and 9th Sep 2018, where they presented their study on “Early Detection of TB leading to early elimination” and won the Gold Medal. Seven countries namely Malaysia, Laos, Sri Lanka, China, Thailand, Indonesia and Egypt also participated in the contest.

Their project was also selected to be presented in “International Salon of Inventions and New Technologies” organised in Russia on 27-29th Sep 2018. Both students could not attend the meet in person, however, their study was presented in catalogue category and they again won the Gold Medal.

Now their project has been selected for presentation in an International Exhibition for Young Inventions 2018 scheduled to be held in Faridabad from 17th to 20th October 2018 and both the young achievers along with their mentor Dr.Jahanvi will be attending the exhibition.

It's a matter of great pride not only for them, but for the ANIIMS as well as the A& N Administration.
