

PRESS RELEASE

Department of Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs distributes sugar also alongwith rice & fortified wheat flour to the NFSA beneficiaries under the Govt. of India's Sugar subsidy scheme. Due to Administrative reasons sugar could not be supplied after October, 2017. All the issues of procurement and transportation of sugar have been resolved in the last two months and the commodity has reached Chennai on 23.12.2018 and is under transportation to Port Blair. The Department will start distribution of sugar to FPS by 1st week of January, 2019.

The NFSA beneficiaries are informed to purchase their quota of sugar from their respective FPS from the 1st week of January, 2019 alongwith PDS foodgrains. The backlog quota of sugar from the month of November, 2017 for twelve months at a monthly fixed entitlement of 1 kg per family per month @ Rs. 15/- & Rs. 30/- per kg for AAY & PHH families respectively can be collected from concerned FPS. The eligible families may collect their entitled sugar quota in installment also.
